

1 OREGON SOCIETY OF MEDICAL ASSISTANTS
2 2018 – 2019 Annual Meeting
3 Report of AAMA Delegate Miller
4 For the period ending April 12, 2019

5 This Delegate attended all meetings and sessions as required including but not limited to: HOD
6 orientation and training, HOD check in, HOD session I, reference committees, the candidates meet and
7 greet and the HOD session II. During the HOD, she participated and voted when needed. She attended
8 many educational sessions and took every opportunity available to network with members. She took 9 every opportunity she could to talk with AAMA Past Presidents as their wisdom is vital in the 10 successfulness of our organization.

11 Delegate Miller was assigned the Welcome and Awards Celebration to report on. There was a tasty
12 array of fruit and berries, veggies and dip, local and domestic cheeses served with artisan breads and 13 crackers, mini desserts and coffee.

14 The recipients of the Awards of Distinction were:

15 Golden Apple

16 Cheryl Kuck, CMA-C (AAMA), MS

17 Leadership and Mentoring

18 Shirley Sawyer, CMA (AAMA), CPC

19 Medical Assistant of the Year

20 Sherry Bogar, CMA (AAMA)

21

22 The Excel Awards are given in four categories:

23 Section A = 200 members or fewer

24 Section B = 201-500 members

25 Section C = 501-800 members

26 Section D = 801 members or more

27 OSMA falls under Section D

28 OSMA won an Excel Award for the 2018 “Student Day”, Virginia Chambers, CMA (AAMA), MHA,
29 campaign director. This delegate congratulates Virginia and thanks her for her hard work on this
30 endeavor for the betterment of students.

31 Achievement Awards are also given. OSMA won an Achievement Award for the OSMA website. This 32 is very exciting as the OSMA website has been recently renovated. Thank you for all involved.

33 A complete listing of the award recipients is attached.

34

35 Candy Miller, CMA (AAMA)