44 In January LCMA hosted the OSMA Winter Quarterly virtually. Employees of Cascade Health
45 were the speakers. The topic was End of Life Care, Palliative Care and Hospice Care. 4 CEUs

46 ACG categories. It was a highly successful meeting with great education and education. A 47 profit of $2070.00 was split equally between LCMA and OSMA. The OSMA Board meeting was 48 held in the afternoon.

49

50 This chapter is actively planning the OSMA Fall Quarterly. It will be held at Sacred Heart
51 Riverbend on October 8th. Four hours of education in the morning with the OSMA Board
52 meeting in the afternoon. More details to follow.

53

54 LCMA has started planning for the 2023 OSMA Annual Conference. It will be held on April
55 19-23, 2023 at the Holiday Inn Express, Springfield

56

57 In December, members of LCMA donated twenty-six shoeboxes for distribution to the Women staying 58 at the Eugene Mission. LCMA also donated $100 towards purchasing additional items to put in the 59 boxes and an additional $100 check for them to use as they need. They have been participating in this 60 community service project for years.

61

62 LCMA is struggling with active participation in the business of the organization and the attendance in
63 their educational sessions. They have discussed the possible dissolution of their chapter and potential
64 merge with another chapter(s). The board continues to search for ways to improve participation. They 65 have brainstormed and contacted members and co-workers to encourage them to volunteer. So far, they 66 have had no positive results. They will continue to seek out new people to join the board or even assist 67 in little projects or committees.

68

69 President Miller thanks LCMA for allowing her to participate in this endeavor. She also thanks the few 70 members who participate in the business of LCMA and attend the educational sessions.
