34 This chapter is struggling to find speakers willing to present educational sessions.
35

36 In October, in honor of Medical Assistant's Recognition, we awarded two AAMA memberships
37 via a drawing. The lucky recipients were Larissa Krausz, CMA (AAMA) and Jennifer Sparks,
38 CMA (AAMA), congratulations!
39
40

41 LCMA was responsible for hosting the OSMA Winter Quarterly. Due to circumstances beyond
42 anyone's control, this responsibility was assigned late and they had to scramble to get a session
43 in place. The topic was: Immunizations, Vaccines, COVID 19 and more. It was an excellent
44 educational session with a panel of three speakers. There were 78 registered, of which 73 were 45 AAMA members, 3 non-members and 2 students. A financial report will be given at the OSMA
46 pre-conference board meeting.

47

48 Lane Chapter will be hosting the OSMA 2023 Annual Conference. They have started talking
49 about details, but nothing else has been done.

50

51 President Miller has attended all chapter meetings, including board meetings, educational
52 meetings, and special sessions. She represented LCMA at the OSMA Summer, Fall and Winter
53 board meetings.

54

55 This chapter has encountered hard circumstances this year and the board has worked through 56 them as a team. Lack of participation in the business and lack of volunteers getting involved is a
57 big frustration. They held their elections and voting via email and snail mail. Trying to get 58 enough people to vote, to conform to the LCMA bylaws, was a struggle. With the bare
59 minimum votes cast to satisfy the bylaws and elect officers

60

61 This chapter will continue to collect nonperishable food items for Food for Lane County and pet
62 food for Greenhill Animal Shelter as soon as in person meetings resume. As they have for many
63 years, they are once again collected "shoeboxes" filled with toiletries and miscellaneous items
64 for the women of the Eugene Mission. Twenty shoeboxes were delivered in December. They 65 also donated $100 to the Eugene Mission for use as they deem necessary.

66

67 President Miller thanks LCMA for allowing her to participate in this endeavor. She also thanks
68 all members for actively participating in the business of LCMA and attend the educational 69 sessions.
